BEFORE THE WESTERN WASHINGTON GROWTH
MANAGEMENT HEARINGS BOARD

BETTER BRINNON COALITION,

Petitioner,

v.

JEFFERSON COUNTY,

Respondent.

No. 03-2-0007

ORDER FINDING COMPLIANCE

This Matter comes before the Board to determine whether the County has achieved compliance with respect to the one remaining non-compliant issue in its Brinnon Subarea Plan, a new type (d)(iii) LAMIRD adjacent to the Brinnon Rural Village Center (The Brinnon Rural Village Center is a type (d)(i), mixed use LAMIRD). The original Final Decision and Order found the County out of compliance with the Growth Management Act (GMA) with respect to a type (d)(i) Light Industrial LAMIRD proposed for the same location in the Brinnon Subarea Plan. Amended Final Decision and Order, November 3, 2003, Conclusions of Law F and G.

In response, the County proposed a new type (d)(iii) LAMIRD in the same location that it had proposed the Light Industrial LAMIRD, adjacent to a mixed use, type (d)(i) LAMIRD (the Brinnon Rural Village Center). The Board found that that the proposed new type (d)(iii) LAMIRD also failed to comply with the GMA; the Board found that the type (d)(iii) LAMIRD proposed could not be located next to the Brinnon Rural Village and still be "isolated". Compliance Order, June 23, 2004.

1 The County asks the Board to find it in compliance on the basis of legislative action it took on
2 October 4, 2004. The County repealed the mechanism by which the type (d)(iii) LAMIRD was 3 created, leaving the land in that area designated as Rural Residential.

5 The Board, two members attending, held a telephonic compliance hearing on November 10, 2004.
6 Nancy Dorgan appeared as a participant pursuant to RCW 36.70A.330(2). Mark Johnsen represented
7 the County. No objection was made to a finding of compliance.
