(1) Because the board bases its decision on the record developed by the city, county, or a state agency taking the challenged action, subpoenas shall not be authorized except in extraordinary circumstances. When allowed by the presiding officer, subpoenas shall be issued and enforced, and witness fees paid, as provided in RCW 34.05.446 and court rules.

(2) Every subpoena shall identify the party causing its issuance. Subpoenas may be issued by the board or by an attorney of record. The person issuing shall sign the subpoena. Parties desiring subpoenas to be signed by the board shall make a showing of relevance and reasonable scope of the testimony or evidence sought and shall prepare the subpoenas for issuance, send them to the board's office for signature, and, upon return, shall make arrangements for service.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-320 Hearing examiner--May be appointed. (1) The board may appoint hearing examiners to assist the board in its hearing function, to make conclusions of law and findings of fact, and, if requested by the board, to make recommendations to the board for decisions in cases before the board.

(2) The findings and conclusions of the hearing examiner shall not become final until they have been formally approved by the panel hearing the case.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-330 Witnesses and testimony--Limitation. (1) Because the board bases its decision on the record developed by the city, county, or the state in taking the challenged action, witnesses shall not be permitted to testify in hearings before the board except as allowed by the presiding officer. Requests to allow witness testimony shall be made no later than five working days prior to the hearing.

All testimony shall be given under oath as provided in chapter 5.28 RCW and subject to cross-examination. Where an interpreter is employed, the provisions of WAC 10-08-150 shall apply.

(2) When allowed to address the board by the presiding officer, local officials shall limit their comments to material contained in the record. Such comments will not be considered testimony, and therefore need not be given under oath.

NEW SECTION

(1) Pursuant to RCW 36.70A.172(2), the board may retain scientific or other expert advice to assist in reviewing a petition that involves critical areas. (2) Upon receiving the report of the consulted expert, the board shall provide all parties a copy of the report and a statement of the expert's qualifications.

The presiding officer will thereafter schedule a place for the hearing.

(2) The notice of hearing shall identify the appeal to be heard, the names of the parties to the appeal and their attorneys or other authorized representatives, if any, and shall include the information specified in RCW 34.05.434.

(3) The notice of hearing will inform the parties of the presiding officer and the panel members designated to hear the matter.

(4) The notice of hearing will include an order setting a date and time for a prehearing conference. If the prehearing conference is to be held by teleconference, the notice shall so state.

(5) The notice of hearing shall contain a tentative schedule for the case prepared by the presiding officer for review and finalization at the prehearing conference.

(6) The notice shall state that if a limited-English-speaking or hearing impaired party needs an interpreter, a qualified interpreter will be appointed and that there will be no cost to the party. The notice shall include a form for a party to indicate if an interpreter is needed and identification of the primary language, or if a participant is hearing impaired.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-510 Index of the record. (1) Within thirty days of service of a petition for review, the respondent shall file with the board and serve a copy on the parties of an index listing all material used in taking the action which is the subject of the petition for review. The index shall contain sufficient identifying information to enable unique documents to be distinguished.

(2) Concurrent with the filing of the index, the respondent shall make all documents in the index reasonably available to the petitioners for inspection and copying without the necessity for a public records request. In addition, the written or tape recorded record of the legislative proceedings where action was taken shall be available to the parties for inspection. Respondents may charge for the cost of copies of documents requested by other parties in accordance with RCW 42.56.120, as amended.

(3) Within seven days after the filing of the index, any other party may file a list of proposed additions to the index. To the extent such documents were submitted to the jurisdiction or a part of the jurisdiction's proceedings prior to the challenged action, they are presumed admissible subject to relevance. If the respondent objects to any proposed addition, the petitioner may bring a motion to supplement the record as provided in WAC 242-03-565.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-520 Exhibits. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the evidence in a case shall consist of the exhibits cited in the briefs and attached thereto. Exhibits shall be documents, portions of documents, or transcriptions of proceedings listed in the index, unless a motion to supplement the record has been granted. A party may submit additional exhibits only upon a showing of good cause.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-525 Designation of presiding officer and panel members. The board shall designate the presiding officer and panel members for each case at the time it issues the notice of hearing pursuant to WAC 242-03-500. In the event the presiding officer or any panel member subsequently changes, the board shall promptly notify the parties.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-530 Presiding officer--Powers and duties. It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to conduct conferences or hearings as directed by the board in an impartial and orderly manner. The presiding officer shall have the authority, subject to the other provisions of the act or these rules to:

(1) Inspect the petition for review to determine whether, on its face, compliance with the jurisdictional and standing requirements of the act is shown, and if compliance is not shown, to recommend an action or to refer the issue to the board for resolution;

(2) Require that parties not represented by counsel designate a spokesperson(s);

(3) Conduct the prehearing conference, seek clarification or simplification of issues, establish the case schedule, and regulate the course of the case;

(8) Review cases for settlement or mediation opportunities and assist the parties in arranging such sessions;

(9) Administer oaths and affirmations if witnesses are permitted to testify, authorize discovery, or issue subpoenas in exceptional circumstances as provided in RCW 34.05.446;

the content of the record;

(11) Limit the length of a brief or impose format restrictions;

(12) Rule on requests for settlement extensions;

(13) Determine whether oral argument will be allowed on a motion and, if so, schedule the hearing; determine whether a conference or hearing shall be held by teleconference or in person;

(14) Require a party to provide a complete copy of the comprehensive plan, county-wide planning policy, or other core document germane to determination of the case;

(15) Waive any requirement of these rules unless a party shows that it would be prejudiced by such a waiver; and

(16) Take any other action necessary and authorized by these rules, the act, or the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-535 Prehearing conference--When held. The prehearing conference will be held thirty days after the filing of the petition for review or as scheduled in the notice of hearing. The prehearing conference is conducted by the presiding officer and is ordinarily held telephonically.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-540 Prehearing conference--Purpose. The purpose of a prehearing conference is to:

(1) Determine the feasibility of and encourage settlement of the matter or any portion thereof;

(2) Obtain a stipulation of relevant facts including the board's jurisdiction, the petitioner's standing in the matter, and the timeliness of the petition for review;

(3) Obtain agreement as to the issues of law and fact presented and their clarification, simplification, limitation, or resolution, so as to frame the final issues to be decided by the board;

(4) Rule on any pending matters of intervention, consolidation, or the qualification of individual board members or the composition of the panel;

(5) Determine the witnesses, if any, that may be allowed to be called by the parties;

(7) Determine the approximate time necessary for the presentation of evidence and/or argument of the respective parties; and

(8) Obtain all other information which may aid in the prompt disposition of the matter.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-545 Prehearing order. (1) Within seven days after the prehearing conference, the presiding officer shall issue a prehearing order memorializing rulings of the board at or prior to the prehearing conference, establishing the issues for resolution in the case, and setting the final case schedule for motions, briefing, and the hearing on the merits. The prehearing order may include:

(a) Admissions concerning jurisdiction, standing, or timeliness of the appeal;

(b) Provisions concerning the record, documents to be provided, witnesses allowed, if any, and authenticity and/or admissibility of exhibits;

(c) Limitations on length of briefs and the coordination of arguments from parties with related issues; or

(d) Any other matters that may expedite the resolution of the matter.

(2) Any objection to such order shall be made in writing within seven days after the date the order is dated. The prehearing order shall control ensuing proceedings unless modified for good cause by a subsequent order.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-550 Motions--General requirements. (1) A motion is an application for an order or ruling. Every motion shall be in writing, unless made during a hearing; shall state with particularity the grounds; and shall set forth the relief or order sought.

(2) The deadline for filing certain motions is established in the prehearing order. No written motion may be filed after the date specified in the order without written permission of the presiding officer which may be granted for good cause shown.

(3) Unless the prehearing order or other order in the case establishes a different deadline, a party served with a motion shall have ten days from the date of service of the motion to respond to it. The presiding officer may allow the moving party to reply to the response.

(4) A party filing a motion on a routine matter is encouraged to inform other parties and to indicate in the motion whether it is filed with the concurrence of other parties.

(5) A motion on procedural matters will generally be decided by the presiding officer without a hearing.

(6) The presiding officer, taking into consideration the complexity and finality of the issues raised in a motion, may, in the officer's discretion, schedule a telephonic hearing for argument of the motion to the board or may defer consideration of the motion until commencement of the hearing on the merits.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-555 Dispositive motions. (1) Dispositive motions on a limited record to determine the board's jurisdiction, the standing of a petitioner, or the timeliness of the petition are permitted. The board rarely entertains a motion for summary judgment except in a case of failure to act by a statutory deadline.

(2) Dispositive motions and responses shall be filed by the dates established in the prehearing order. The board may refuse to hear a motion that is not timely filed, except where good cause is shown.

(3) The presiding officer, taking into consideration the complexity and finality of the issues raised, may, in the presiding officer's discretion, request a reply brief from the moving party, schedule a telephonic hearing for argument of the motion or may defer the board's consideration of the motion until commencement of the hearing on the merits.

(4) Unless the order on dispositive motions is a final order pursuant to WAC 242-03-030(9), no motion for reconsideration will be allowed.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-560 Dispositive motion on notice and public participation. Any party may bring a motion for the board to decide a challenge to compliance with the notice and public participation requirements of the act raised in the petition for review, provided that the evidence relevant to the challenge is limited. Such motion shall be filed by the deadline for dispositive motions established in the prehearing order. The presiding officer shall determine whether the panel will decide the notice and public participation issue(s) on motion or whether to continue those issues to the hearing on the merits.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-565 Motion to supplement the record. Generally, the board will review only documents and exhibits taken from the record developed by the city, county, or state in taking the action that is the subject of review by the board and attached to the briefs of a party. A party by motion may request that the board allow the record to be supplemented with additional evidence. A motion to supplement the record shall be filed by the deadline established in the prehearing order, shall attach a copy of the document, and shall state the reasons why such evidence would be necessary or of substantial assistance to the board in reaching its decision, as specified in RCW 36.70A.290(4). Evidence arising subsequent to adoption of the challenged legislation is rarely allowed except when supported by a motion to supplement showing the necessity of such evidence to the board's decision concerning invalidity.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-570 Motion to disqualify for cause--Challenge to panel. (1) A motion to disqualify a board member from serving on a panel or to challenge the composition of the panel shall be brought at least seven days before the board holds a prehearing conference, or if facts establishing grounds for disqualification are subsequently discovered, promptly after discovery of such facts. In the event a new panel assignment is made during the course of the proceedings on a matter, any motion for disqualification or challenge to panel composition shall be brought no later than seven days after the board issues its notice of panel assignment.

(2) Any board member designated to serve on a panel is subject to disqualification for bias, prejudice, interest, or any other cause as provided in RCW 34.05.425. The board member whose disqualification is requested shall promptly determine whether to grant the motion, stating facts and reasons for the determination.

(3) If a party brings a motion challenging the composition of the panel for noncompliance with the requirements of RCW 36.70A.260, the presiding officer shall promptly forward the motion to the administrative officer who will prepare a response.

(4) If a motion for disqualification or challenge to composition of the panel is granted, a new panel assignment and/or presiding officer designation will be promptly made. The parties will be informed at the prehearing conference and the resolution of the matter will be included in the prehearing order or other written order of the board issued within twenty days of the filing of the motion.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-575 Settlement extensions. (1) If additional time is necessary to achieve settlement of a dispute that is an issue in a petition before the board, the board may extend the one hundred eighty-day time limit for issuing a final decision and order, as provided in RCW 36.70A.300 (2)(b). The presiding officer may authorize one, or more, extensions of up to ninety days each.

(2) A request for a settlement extension must be filed with the board not later than seven days before the date scheduled for the hearing on the merits of the petition.

(3) The presiding officer may grant a request for a settlement extension if:

(a) The request was timely filed; and

(b) (i) All parties named in the caption of the petition, agree to and sign the request; or

(ii) A petitioner and respondent agree to and sign the request and the board determines that a negotiated settlement between the remaining parties could resolve significant issues in dispute.

(4) The presiding officer may require status reports from the parties to determine whether progress is being made on resolving the dispute.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-580 Continuances. Other than for settlement purposes pursuant to WAC 242-03-575, continuance of a scheduled hearing will be granted only on the board's initiative or upon timely request of a party setting forth in detail the reason for such a request and a date by which such reason will no longer apply. The board will continue the matter only in extraordinary circumstances and upon a finding of good cause. Continuance and rescheduling of a hearing on the merits or compliance hearing does not extend the statutory deadline for filing a final decision or for taking action to achieve compliance with the act.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-590 Briefs. (1) A petitioner, or a moving party when a motion has been filed, shall submit a brief addressing each legal issue it expects the board to determine. Failure by such a party to brief an issue shall constitute abandonment of the unbriefed issue. Briefs shall enumerate and set forth the legal issue(s) as specified in the prehearing order.

(2) Briefs shall be filed according to the schedule in the prehearing order or any subsequent order amending the briefing schedule.

(3) Clarity and brevity are expected to assist the board in meeting its statutorily imposed time limits. A presiding officer may limit the length of a brief and impose format restrictions.

NEW SECTION

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-610 Hearing--Procedures at hearing. (1) Purpose. The purpose of any hearing is for the parties to present oral argument based on the record as presented in their briefs and exhibits and for the board to ask questions necessary for a thorough understanding of the issues for decision.

(5) Supplemental evidence submitted at hearing. In exceptional circumstance the board may allow the submission of supplemental evidence at a hearing in response to board questions, upon a showing that the supplemental evidence is necessary or of substantial assistance to the board. If supplemental evidence is thereby introduced, the opposing party shall have the opportunity to respond. The board may require the parties to submit post-hearing briefing or documents detailing the supplemental evidence, and the opposing party's rebuttal to the supplemental evidence.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-620 Evidence at hearing. (1) All relevant evidence, including hearsay evidence, is admissible if, in the opinion of the presiding officer, the offered evidence is the kind of evidence upon which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs. The presiding officer shall exclude evidence that is irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious.

(2) The board's experience, technical knowledge, competency, and specialized knowledge may be used in evaluation of evidence.

(3) If not inconsistent with subsection (1) of this section, the presiding officer may refer to, but shall not be bound by, the Washington rules of evidence.

(4) Documentary evidence may be submitted in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference, subject to the following:

(a) That all documentary evidence which is to be relied upon be submitted to the board and to other parties with their briefs;

(b) That documentary evidence not submitted as required in (a)

of this subsection and not supported by a timely filed motion to supplement the record pursuant to WAC 242-03-565 not be received in evidence in the absence of a clear showing that the offering party had good cause for the failure to produce the evidence sooner, unless it is submitted for impeachment or rebuttal purposes;

(c) That all documents so presented and examined be deemed authentic unless written objection is filed within ten days after receipt. A party will be permitted to challenge such authenticity at a later time only upon a clear showing of good cause.

(d) When only portions of a document or portions of a proceeding are to be relied upon, the offering party shall adequately identify and prepare the pertinent excerpts and shall supply copies of such excerpts for attachment as exhibits to a brief. However, the whole of the original document or recording shall be made available for examination and for use by all parties to the proceeding.

(a) Business customs. General customs and practices followed in the transaction of business.

(b) Notorious facts. Facts so generally and widely known to all well-informed persons as not to be subject to reasonable dispute or specific facts which are capable of immediate and accurate demonstration by resort to accessible sources of generally accepted authority, including, but not exclusively, facts stated in any publication authorized or permitted by law to be made by any federal or state officer, department, or agency.

DISPOSITION OF CASES PRIOR TO HEARING

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-700 Dismissal--How decided. An order of dismissal, upon stipulation, dispositive motion, or default, is decided by the panel hearing the case. If the order disposes of the entire case, it is a final order for the purposes of appeal.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-710 Default. (1) When a party to a proceeding has, after proper notice, failed to attend a hearing or any other matter before the board or presiding officer, or failed to file a prehearing brief, a motion for default or dismissal may be brought by any party to the case or raised by the board upon its own motion or by a presiding officer. Any order granting the motion shall include a statement of the grounds for the order and shall be served upon all parties to the case.

(2) If the party in default is the respondent, the board may determine whether petitioner has made a prima facie case that overcomes the statutory presumption of validity such that, in absence of briefing and argument by respondent, the board's order should include a finding of noncompliance, specifying the grounds for the order.

(3) Within seven days after service of an order of dismissal, default or noncompliance under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the party against whom the order was entered may file a written objection requesting that the order be vacated and stating the specific grounds relied upon. (1) When the hearing on the petition for review has been held and the record reviewed by a majority of the panel hearing the matter, a written final decision and order shall be issued that contains appropriate findings and conclusions, and articulates the basis for the final decision and order.

(2) The board will not issue advisory opinions on issues not presented to the board in the petition for review's statement of the issues, as modified by any prehearing order.

(3) Except as provided in RCW 36.70A.300 (2)(b) and WAC 242-03-575, the final decision and order shall be issued by the board within one hundred eighty days of receipt of the petition for review, or if multiple petitions are filed, within one hundred eighty days of receipt of the last petition that is consolidated. The order shall be served on each party of record.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-820 Final decision and order. (1) In its final decision and order, the board shall either:

(a) Find that the state agency, county or city is in compliance with the requirements of chapter 36.70A RCW, chapter 90.58 RCW as it relates to the adoption or amendment of shoreline master programs, or chapter 43.21C RCW as it relates to adoption of plans, development regulations, and amendments thereto, under RCW 36.70A.040 or chapter 90.58 RCW; or

(b) Find that the state agency, county or city is not in compliance with the requirements of chapter 36.70A RCW, chapter 90.58 RCW as it relates to the adoption or amendment of shoreline master programs, or chapter 43.21C RCW as it relates to adoption of plans, development regulations, and amendments thereto, under RCW 36.70A.040 or chapter 90.58 RCW.

(2) If the board's final decision and order finds noncompliance:

(a) Conclusions of law in the final decision and order shall specify the nature, scope, and statutory basis for the finding of noncompliance.

(b) The board's final decision and order shall remand the matter to the state agency, county, or city and establish a compliance schedule as specified in RCW 36.70A.300 (3)(b).

(c) The board retains jurisdiction of the matter until the board issues its final order on compliance.

(3) In its final decision and order, the board may determine that part or all of a comprehensive plan or development regulations are invalid if the board:

(a) Makes a finding of noncompliance and issues an order of remand;

(b) Includes in its final decision and order a determination, supported by findings of fact and conclusions of law, that the continued validity of part or parts of the plan or regulation would substantially interfere with the fulfillment of the goals of the act; and

(c) Specifies the part or parts, if applicable, of the plan or regulation that are determined to be invalid and the reasons for invalidity.

(4) The effect of a determination of invalidity is as set forth in RCW 36.70A.302.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-830 Postdecision motions--Reconsideration. (1) After issuance of a final decision any party may file a motion for reconsideration with the board in accordance with subsection (2) of this section. Such motion must be filed within ten days of service

(b) Irregularity in the hearing before the board by which such party was prevented from having a fair hearing.

(3) In response to a motion for reconsideration, the board may deny the motion, modify its decision, or reopen the hearing. The motion for reconsideration shall be disposed of by the same panel that entered the order, if reasonably available. A motion is deemed denied, if, within twenty days from the date the motion for reconsideration is filed, the board does not either:

(a) Dispose of the motion; or

(b) Serve the parties with a written notice specifying the date by which it will act on the motion.

(4) Upon receipt of a letter from a party identifying typographical errors or clerical mistakes in a final order, the board may, without objection, issue a corrected order. The letter must be filed within the deadline for motions for reconsideration and should indicate that the sender has obtained the concurrence of all other parties. Issuance of a corrected order does not extend the time for filing a petition for judicial review.

(5) A decision in response to the motion for reconsideration shall constitute a final decision and order for purposes of judicial review. A board order on a motion for reconsideration is not subject to a motion for reconsideration.

(6) No motion for reconsideration stays the effectiveness of the board's final decision and order.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-840 Postdecision motions--Reconsider compliance schedule. Where the board's order makes a finding of noncompliance and enters a schedule for the responding jurisdiction to achieve compliance, the respondent may file a motion for reconsideration requesting modification of the compliance schedule upon a showing of special complexity, specific hardship, or the need to coordinate the compliance action with other planning activities of the jurisdiction. The motion shall be filed and disposed of pursuant to WAC 242-03-830.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-850 Postdecision motions--Clarify, modify or rescind invalidity. Where the board's final decision and order makes a determination of invalidity, and the city or county subject to the order has not yet enacted legislation in response to the board's order, the city or county may file a motion to clarify, modify or rescind invalidity. The motion and any response may be supported by evidence arising subsequent to adoption of the invalidated legislation. Pursuant to RCW 36.70A.302(6), the board shall expeditiously schedule a hearing on the motion. Not later than thirty days after the hearing on the motion, the board shall issue any supplemental order continuing, clarifying, modifying or rescinding invalidity based on information provided at the hearing.

(3) Delay in application of the board's order is not likely to result in actions that substantially interfere with the goals of the GMA; or

(4) The parties have agreed to halt implementation of the noncompliant ordinance and undertake no irreversible actions regarding the subject matter of the case during the pendency of the stay; or

(5) Delay in application of the board's order furthers the orderly administration of justice.

The board's order granting a stay will contain appropriate findings and conditions. A board order denying stay is not subject to judicial review.

COMPLIANCE/REMAND

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-900 Determination of noncompliance--Compliance schedule and notice of compliance hearing. (1) In those cases where the board, in a final order, has made a determination of noncompliance pursuant to RCW 36.70A.300 (3)(b), the board shall remand the matter to the affected state agency, county, or city.

(2) The board's final decision and order shall specify a reasonable time not in excess of one hundred eighty days, or such longer time as determined by the board in cases of unusual scope or complexity, within which the state agency, county, or city shall comply. In its order the board shall establish a compliance schedule, including a schedule for briefing and hearing, and may require periodic reports on the progress the jurisdiction is making toward compliance.

(3) The compliance schedule in the board's order shall set a hearing date for the purpose of determining whether compliance has been achieved and shall constitute notice of the compliance hearing. The compliance hearing shall be given the highest priority of business.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-910 Compliance--Expedited hearing. When a city or county has taken legislative action to comply with all or part of the board's order prior to the expiration of the time set for compliance, the city or county may file a motion requesting an expedited compliance hearing. The presiding officer shall promptly set a new hearing date and issue a notice establishing the time and place of the hearing and a briefing schedule.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-920 Statement of action taken to comply--Compliance index. On or before the date indicated in the compliance schedule, the city or county subject to an order of noncompliance shall file a brief indicating the legislation adopted or other action taken to comply with the board's order. A copy of the legislation or relevant portion shall be attached to the brief. The city or county shall also provide a compliance index including the index from the original proceeding and a listing of all additional material used subsequent to the remand in taking the action to comply.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-930 Compliance participant. (1) A person with standing to challenge legislation taken in response to the board's order may petition the board to be allowed to participate at the compliance hearing. The compliance participant shall file a motion to participate by the date indicated in the compliance schedule, or if no date is indicated, by at least twenty days before the initial prehearing brief would be required under the compliance schedule. The motion should indicate the basis of the person's standing pursuant to RCW 36.70A.330(2) and the person's interest in the matter. Participation in the compliance proceeding shall be limited to matters about which the person testified in the proceedings below related to issues concerning compliance with the board's prior order. The compliance participant shall abide by the briefing schedule set in the compliance schedule.

(2) A person who has participated in the proceedings of a local jurisdiction to enact legislation in response to the board's order and who seeks to raise new issues unrelated to compliance with the board's prior order, must file a new petition for review. New issues are issues not within the nature, scope and statutory basis of conclusions of noncompliance in the board's prior order finding noncompliance.

(3) A compliance participant seeking to be a party to all subsequent proceedings in the matter shall so indicate by a motion to intervene.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-940 Compliance--Hearing. (1) The procedures at the compliance hearing shall be as set forth by the presiding officer. The matter shall be heard and decided by the same panel that entered the final decision and order, if reasonably available.

(2) The evidence in a compliance hearing shall consist of the exhibits cited in the briefs submitted in the compliance proceeding and attached thereto. Documents provided in the original proceeding, if referenced in briefs in the compliance proceeding, must be attached as exhibits.

(3) The burden is on the petitioner to demonstrate that the action taken by the city or county is not in compliance with the board's order, except that a city or county subject to a determination of invalidity has the burden of demonstrating that the action taken will no longer substantially interfere with fulfillment of the goals of the act.

(4) When the basis for an order of noncompliance is the jurisdiction's failure to take an action by a deadline specified in the act, the only question before the board at the compliance hearing is whether the jurisdiction has taken the required action. Any challenge to the merits of the newly enacted legislation must be asserted in a new petition for review.

(5) Issues not within the nature, scope, and statutory basis of the conclusions of noncompliance in the prior order will not be addressed in the compliance hearing but require the filing of a new petition for review.

(6) After a compliance hearing, the board shall determine whether a state agency, city or county is in compliance with the requirements of the act as remanded in the final decision and order. The board shall issue an order on compliance indicating its findings and conclusions. If the board finds continuing noncompliance, the board shall enter conclusions of law specifying the nature, scope and statutory basis for the finding of continuing noncompliance. The board shall establish a new compliance schedule to address any remaining matters of noncompliance with the issues raised in the prior order. The board may require periodic reports to the board on the progress the jurisdiction is making towards compliance.

(7) Upon motion of a party or participant, or on its own motion, if the board finds that the county or city continues to be in noncompliance with the act, the board shall decide, if no determination of invalidity had previously been made, whether one should now be made. The board shall state in its order the part or parts of the legislation invalidated and the facts and law on which the determination of invalidity is based.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-950 Compliance--Rescinding invalidity after new legislation. If a county or city subject to a determination of invalidity has enacted legislation amending the invalidated plan, regulation or part thereof, the jurisdiction may move for a hearing to modify or rescind invalidity. Pursuant to RCW 36.70A.302(7), the board shall expeditiously schedule a hearing on the motion. Not later than thirty days after the hearing on the motion, the board shall issue an order continuing, modifying, or rescinding the determination of invalidity depending upon whether the jurisdiction's legislative action has removed the basis for invalidity so that it no longer substantially interferes with the goals of the act. The board may rescind a determination of invalidity but find continuing noncompliance, in which case the board shall establish a new compliance schedule.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-960 Continued noncompliance--Recommendation to the governor. If the board finds that the county or city continues to be in noncompliance with the act, the board shall transmit its findings to the governor. The board may recommend that sanctions authorized by the act be imposed. A jurisdiction's efforts to meet a compliance schedule shall be considered by the board in making a recommendation on sanctions to the governor.

NEW SECTION

(2) In the event that direct appellate review is sought, within thirty days of the filing of a petition for review in the superior court, a party may request a certificate of appealability for direct review by the court of appeals. For a consolidated case, the record also includes all such documents associated with the cases that were so consolidated. The record also includes the board's recorded hearing(s).

(2) Pursuant to RCW 34.05.566(4), the record may be shortened by stipulation of all parties within twenty days of the filing of the appeal and prior to commencement of certification of the record.

(3) The board will prepare the record for certification after it receives a commitment from the party seeking review to pay the costs of transcribing the recorded hearing(s) and of copying the record. Payment of costs is required prior to certification of the record to the court.

NEW SECTION

WAC 242-03-990 Procedure on remand. Within forty-five days of receipt of the mandate of the court remanding a decision of the board, the presiding officer will schedule a conference of the parties to determine the procedures required to resolve the matter in accordance with the mandate.
