On March 18, 2002, Petitioners filed a Petition for Review relative to Spokane County's Phase I Development Regulations Implementing the Spokane County Comprehensive Plan, adopted January 15, 2002 pursuant to Findings and Decision No. 2-0037.

The parties through their respective counsel stipulated that the Transitional Provisions in Section 1 on page 2 of 78 of the Phase I Development Regulations were not adopted in compliance with the public participation requirements of chapter 36.70A RCW, due to the fact that the Board of County Commissioners of Spokane County made changes to those transitional provisions from what was recommended by the Spokane County Planning Commission without holding a further public hearing.

On remand from the Eastern Washington Growth Management Hearings Board, the Spokane County Planning Commission held public hearings during September and October 2002, on the changes the Spokane County Board of County Commissioners made to the Transitional Provisions of the Phase I Development Regulations. The Planning Commission deliberated on these items at meetings held during October, November, and December 2002, the Planning Commission recommended that the Board of County Commissioners adopt some additional changes to the Transitional Provisions of the Phase I Development Regulations.

The Spokane County Board of County Commissioners adopted the recommendation of the Spokane County Planning Commission in its entirety at the Board's regular meeting held on Tuesday January 7, 2003.
